A Message from Zelda

Zelda Rolfe is the Owner and driving creative force behind Limelight Theatre Company, where she has built a joyful, confidence-boosting space for performers of all ages to discover their voice, their talent, and their sparkle. Passionate about nurturing people as much as productions, Zelda leads Limelight with a blend of professional expertise, infectious enthusiasm, and a deep belief that theatre should be a place where everyone feels they belong.

Under her leadership, Limelight has grown into one of Norwich's most vibrant performing arts communities - a place where young people flourish, adults rediscover their creativity, and every rehearsal room buzzes with possibility.

Zelda is thrilled to bring Chitty Chitty Bang Bang to the Maddermarket Theatre, a venue that shares her love of storytelling and imagination. She couldn't be prouder of this cast and creative team, whose hard work, heart, and humour have made this production truly scrumptious. She invites you to sit back, relax, and let this magical flying car whisk you away.

Story of Chitty Chitty Bang Bang Jr.

When eccentric inventor Caractacus Potts rescues a dilapidated racecar named Chitty Chitty Bang Bang for his children, he inadvertently sets off an extraordinary adventure. After restoring the car and discovering it can fly, Potts, his children, and the beautiful Truly Scrumptious must launch a rescue mission when the villainous Baron of Vulgaria mistakes Grandpa Potts for the inventor and kidnaps him. Their quest takes them to a bizarre kingdom where children are outlawed, forcing the Potts family to team up with a local Toymaker and a band of hidden children. Disguised as wind-up dolls, Potts and Truly infiltrate the castle, defeat the sinister Child Catcher, banish the Baron, and save the day with Chitty's magical help.

A Message from our Director Anna Lawrence

Since graduating from Lancaster University with an MA in Contemporary Theatre Practice, Anna has worked as a freelance director & choreographer for many regions in the UK and Europe. London productions include 'Story of an African Farm' (Young Vic), 'Cell Block Tango', (Bridewell Theatre), Houdini & Doyle (Greenwich Theatre), and MMT Education (Queen Elizabeth Hall). Regional & European projects include 'Caucasian Chalk Circle' (Minerva, Chichester), 'The Little Sweep' (NYMT, Edinburgh Fringe) and 'Faustus' (touring Germany, Poland & Spain).

Anna was the visiting director on the Theatre design programme for the Wimbledon School of Art for many years, working with undergraduate design students. She has devised theatre and music work for young people with The Dorset Opera Festival education programme, The Oxford Schools Project, and Norwich Theatre Royal's Opera Project. Anna has staged large-scale musicals at Spowston Community Academy including 'We Will Rock You', 'The Addams Family', 'Oliver!' 'Beauty and the Beast' & 'Grease'.

CREATIVE TEAM

Alison Masterson:

I have been involved with Limelight as a parent since my son was 5 (he is now 19) and have assisted with the music for the shows over the past 4 years. I also help run the Limelight Performance Group. It has been a real pleasure to teach the company their music for this show and to see the kids' confidence improving over the months. I am immensely proud of how hard they have worked. Enjoy the show!

Julia Ann Dixon:

Julia started dancing age 5 at Central School of Dance, Norwich, with further training at Laine Theatre Arts Epsom. West End Musical credits include: High Society – Shaftsbury Avenue & tours, Anything Goes – Theatre Royal Drury Lane, Fred Astaire, A daughters tribute – London Palladium & A Tribute to Gershwin – The Royal Albert Hall. Julia has also toured the world with Spirit of the Dance and Lead vocalist on cruise contracts. TV film credits include Hamlet, Holby City, Eastenders and Harry Potter and the Deathly Hallows Part II.

Martyn Rolfe:

Martyn is delighted to be part of Limelight Theatre Company's production of Chitty Chitty Bang Bang Jr. as stage manager. Although he now spends much of his time behind the scenes, his first love will always be singing. Over the years, he has performed with numerous theatre companies across East Anglia, building a rich background in musical theatre. A natural problem-solver with a creative streak, Martyn can build just about anything from the most obscure materials. He honed these skills during his time at Scenic Projects, where he developed a passion for set construction and design. One of his greatest joys is passing on what he's learned to others, helping new generations of performers and backstage crew discover the magic of theatre.
